THE INTERNATIONAL WINE & SPIRIT COMPETITION ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET

Guildhall, City of London
Wednesday 16th November

CONFERENCE
AWARDS 2015 WINNER
Best Awards Event

- A black tie event, set in the stunning Guildhall
- Award winning Champagne and sparkling wine reception upon arrival
- Bringing together the wine and spirit industry elite
- 5 course banquet, each course paired with a specially selected gold / gold outstanding / trophy winning wine
- Trophy presentations and speeches, including 2016 President Matteo Lunelli and Communicator of the Year Joe Wadsack

"The IWSC Awards Banquet was a thoroughly enjoyable event from start to finish. Truly well organised, the event commenced with a tasting that embraced formality but lightened by mixologists creating cocktails from the spirit sector. The Banquet was held in the grand surroundings of the Guildhall and kept a balance between formality and unpretentiousness, a hugely enjoyable night."

Anita Jackson
UK Director
Wines of Chile

- Winners' tasting with over 400 of the highest scoring wines and spirits from the years competition. Gold, Gold Outstanding, and the first taste of the trophy winners. The two hour tasting in the crypts provides the perfect opportunity to network, sample winners and catch up with friends
- Livery hall presentation of product trophies with canapés and champagne
- First reveal of the top portfolio awards
- After dinner exclusive taste of winning digestifs

"Over the years I have attended an enormous amount of award ceremonies all around the world. None work as well as the IWSC. The annual awards banquet held at Guildhall London is one of the most well managed events in the world. Each year, I simply rock up and enjoy the seamless operation."

Dave Hughes
IWSC Judge

"The banquet is a great chance to meet people, get to know new people and a chance for the team to enjoy ourselves. This is the big one - the Oscars for the wine and spirit industry."

Martin Kinnear
Beam Suntory

"The IWSC banquet is one of the most enjoyable of all industry events. Not only is it preceded by a fantastic tasting, but the quality of food, drink and presentation is exceptional. The IWSC gather the great and good of both the wine and spirits trades - it's the only event where both fields mingle and taste in such a top-class and integrated way. An excellent evening, both socially and professionally."
